It's a blank book that sits, willing and able, to take everything you throw at it. Mine accompanied me on a trip to Australia and now contains a wealth of memories that I'll cherish for years to come. And it still has quite a bit of blank pages for more adventures to come!

The Waverley Scotland Tartan Cloth Commonplace Notebooks each with 176 pages (left blank, right ruled), acid-free, thread sewn, 80 gsm cream shade pages, are bound in genuine Scottish tartan cloth over board, with round cornered cover and book block corners, stained edges and a matching elastic enclosure. Each volume has a ribbon-marker and an expandable inner note holder made of cardboard and cloth, and removable booklet with background notes, with a Clan Map of Scotland, and with an individual bookmark, giving detail on the specific tartan used for the binding. The tartan cloth is supplied by and produced with the authority of Kinloch Anderson Scotland, holders of Royal Warrants of Appointment as Tailors and Kiltmakers to HM The Queen, HRH The Duke of Edinburgh and HRH The Prince of Wales.
