0 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Five StarsBy Thelma LugoGreat book, great service.

This beautiful modern volume presents the work of 30 contemporary artists who have turned to clay to shape their most innovative ideas into stunning works of art. From cups shaped like crystals to a tree trunk made of porcelain and stoneware planters painted to look like ladies, popular curator and blogger Kate Singleton collects here whimsical pieces with narrative, graphic, curious, and organic qualities that blur the line between fine art, design, and craft. Featuring a unique package with a die-cut, foil-stamped cover, this book is a vital guide to an evolving medium and a thoughtful present for those interested in the future of art and craft.

Singleton has curated a stunning look at the whimsical and eclectic world of present-day ceramic art. Publishers Weekly About the Author Kate Singleton writes the blog Art Hound and runs Buy Some Damn Art, an online gallery featuring original work. She lives in NYC. Danielle Krysa is the blogger behind the Jealous Curator, and the author of Creative Block and Collage. She lives in British Columbia.
