More of a catalog of possibilitiesBy Bernie (xyzyy)This book contains many popular examples of Weaving of the Southwest". It is not a how-to in the sense of how to make the weavings as a collection of weavings showing what can be done or has been made, who made them and a little about each design. This book includes not just rugs but clothing also.On picture (reference 212) you can see a loom that looks like it was made from available materials such as 4" water pipes, 2 by, and 4 by 4 planks. It is or by this time was viewable in the Navaho Hubble Trading Post.Warping All by Yourself

Weaving designs of the Southwest.
