World Paper Money Errors

Morland Fischer : World Paper Money Errors before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised World Paper Money Errors:

Odd shapes, upside down prints, intriguing cuts and folds, and missing design elements are only a few of the different printing errors examined in this expansive collection on foreign error notes. World Paper Money Errors is a visually compelling avenue into the fascinating and rarely explored area of numismatics that expands on the hobby of collecting paper currency. Author Morland Fischer's comprehensive collection reflects the attraction and advantages of exploring foreign printing errors. An overview of collecting paper money errors in today's numismatic market offers insights on the great disparity between domestic and world notes. Market values are discussed, acknowledging what variables make an error note precious in the trade. Incorporating these concepts and more, Fischer expands the method of collecting currency errors by introducing a Foreign Error Note (FEN) scale to gauge price levels based on error type. With over 200 examples of dramatic, colorful and intriguing foreign paper money errors, collectors and spectators alike are exposed to a new form of collecting currency. The numismatic community will benefit from this thorough guide that is unlike any other on the market.

About the Author Morland Charles Fischer was born and raised in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania and currently resides in Orange, California. He and his wife, Hildy, have been married for 28 years and have 2 children, Dahvi and Brett.

Morland graduated with a B.S. in Electrical Engineering. He later earned a Juris Doctor and is now a patent and trademark lawyer in Irvine, California. He has been admitted to the Pennsylvania and California State bars and the United States Patent Bar. He is a past president of the Orange County Intellectual Property Association. Morland C. Fischer has been an avid collector of small size paper money for over 13 years. He is particularly interested in United States star (replacement) notes and world error notes including those featured in this book. He entered the paper money hobby after his curiosity and excitement were piqued watching a late night telemarketer show a U. S. error note. Besides his numismatic interests, Morland is an active tennis player. He also plays the guitar and writes songs, especially for family celebrations. He has been a regular speaker to professional organizations, elementary schools, high schools and colleges.
