Woven Wires, the art of modern Zulu wire weaving

Laura Ponter : Woven Wires, the art of modern Zulu wire weaving before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Woven Wires, the art of modern Zulu wire weaving:

0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. A good if brief introductionBy Toby B. There are some great pictures, and some interesting info, but the basket-collector's travelogue format is a little odd. But the baskets speak for themselves.

Woven Wires is an introduction to the history, technique and beauty of the modern art of weaving with wires. It is one person's journey into the growing craft-art of the Zulu people of South Africa.

About the Author Laura Ponter has had a passion for African arts for over three decades. She and her husband run several galleries in Northern Californian that specialize in African arts and crafts including sculpture, masks, baskets and paintings. Her expertise is in Shona Sculpture from Zimbabwe.
